BOY FROM RIVER, DIES HIDING ACT

Stevie Had Dived in New Suit and, Fatally Injured, Didn't Tell.

Nine-year-old Stevie Redding of No. 368 West Twenty-seventh Street was the happiest boy on the block. He had a new suit, and he couldn't wait until Sunday to wear it.

"Oh, mother," he begged, "can't please put it on and show it to the boys? I'll be careful."

Mrs. Redding hesitated.

"If you'll promise not to get a spot on it, you may," she said at last "But now, Stevie, remember! No swimming!"

The youngster promised, donned street. He knew where the crowd was. They were all down at the foot of West Twenty-eighth Street, splashing in the water. Stevie sat on the dock and watched them. Duffy's Relieved Stomach Trouble and Indigestion

A newspaper advertisement was the means of acquainting Mr. Mangon with the medicinal virtues of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. He says:

"Four years ago I had a bad case of stomach trouble and nervous indigestion. It was impossible to retain any food on my stomach and my weight dropped from 178 pounds to 106 pounds in two years. I took treatment without success and worried took treatment without success and worried myself to a physical wreck. I noticed your advertisement and decided to purchase a bottle. I took Duffy's as directed and have been taking it ever since. I have regained my weight and am now a well and powerful man—thanks to your great remedy. I know it saved my life, and I am nover without a bottle in the house. I wish you could tell the whole world what Duffy's has done for me." (Signed) Geo. M. Mangon, 253 Broadway, New York City.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is recommended in tablespoon doses in equal amounts of water or milk before meals and on retiring as an aid to digestion. Sufferers from stomach trouble and indigestion with sensitive stomachs are able to retain Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, as it is made from health giving grains thoroughly malted and requiring little effort of the digestive organs. As a household remedy for use in emergencies Duffy's is unsurpassed.
